For the fourth year running, Ricardo Strategic Consulting has been cited by Forbes among America's leading management consultants – among more than 50,000 firms active within the US market

Ricardo can reveal today that for the fourth year in succession, it is included in Forbes' America's Best Management Consulting Firms, a list identifying which management consultancies are providing business sectors with the best guidance on their practice. To compile this list of America's Best Management Consulting Firms, Forbes collaborated with online statistics provider Statista. Some 7,500 partners and executives of management consultancies were surveyed, as well as 1,000 senior executives who worked with such firms over the last four years.

Ricardo Strategic Consulting is the global management consulting subsidiary of Ricardo, serving the automotive and transportation industries. It offers a comprehensive portfolio of management consulting services, advises global leaders on high-impact global strategic issues and solves operational challenges at every stage of the value chain.

"To be recognized by our customers through the Forbes Award as one of the Industry's Best Management Consulting companies for the fourth year in a row is both humbling and gratifying, and a true testament to our deep client relationships and commitment to collaboration," said Derek Schlonsky, president of Ricardo Strategic Consulting North America. "We are extremely proud of the effort our professionals put into becoming trusted advisors and true partners with our clients. The feedback is clear that our value proposition and delivery excellence is generating the powerful customer response required to earn this type of recognition."
